

We All See the Stars, inspired by The Sun Poem

Comments from students grades 2, 4 and 8th. Teacher was blown away by some students who have a difficult time expressing themselves and this song empowered them to express their feeling.

1. How do you feel when singing this song? WHY?

Isabella- I think this song can give people a new view on things because it has ideas that really show what a decent person should value. I feel it could change people's mindset.

Kiana- This song is telling people who are insecure that everyone will go through the same problems. Everyone is the same in some ways.

Kevin- I feel inspired when singing this song.

VH- When I sing this song, I feel like I can do anything

Julia- I felt warm inside because the song is about how everyone is welcome.

Jayden- It's a good song, it's touching.

Zaria- I felt happy to sing with all my friends.

Maria- I feel happy to help Sara spread her words.

Jose- This song gives me faith for what I believe in.

Annie- I feel really proud and it makes me confident about life.

Anthony- When I sing this song it makes me remember there is good and bad, but more good.

Lunna- I feel proud and free with liberty and happiness.

2. How has singing this song effected your day/life/view of world.

Jade- This song reminds me to be friends with everyone.

VH- Singing this song helped me realize that there is a lot more discrimination than I thought.

Kevin- It has made me view the world with a different perspective.

Anthony- This song changes my day because it is such a good song and stays in my head.

Annie-It makes me really confident in myself because back then there was segregation, and as a fellow black person it hurts how brutal it was. But now this song makes me happy about the everyday life.

David- Now I see the world full of peace.

Lunna- When it was a sad rainy day and I was singing it in front of my mom, I started to feel happy.

4. How can this song help make a change in the community, world etc.....

Anthony- It will help remind people that we are all human.

Corrina- This song is saying not to discriminate; this can help to change people who still think segregation is right.

Jacob- If someone watching the news comes across this song, it could teach them to do the right thing.

VH- This song can bring people together and partially stop discrimination.

RA- It can help people not discriminate against others for being themselves.

David- It can help make our community good and people won't discriminate.

Lunna-If everyone in our community heard this song maybe their terrible cold heart can turn into a lovely, caring, red heart.

Anthony- It will help remind people that we are all human.

Brennan- It can teach people lots of things about other including not discriminating.

5. Is there anything else you want to share about this?

RA- Yes. This is an amazing song to listen to.

David- I think it's a great way to make the world peaceful again.

Lunna- When I hear this song sometimes it makes me feel like I want to cry because lots of people do bad stuff in this world that no one can control except for themselves.

Annie- One day the world will hear this song and it will stop discrimination.

Robert- If people were in a fight and heard the song they would calm down and become friends.

Anna- Every time I play a game I think if this song.

Christopher- Every time I wake up I think about this song because I see the reason of the song.

Taylor- Every day I catch myself humming that song.

Athan- I went to my friends house and taught it to him.

Daniella- I had a dream about the song and it helped the world.

Alexia- The part of the song that says one day they will take our place, I think about when I grow up and take my parents place, it makes me sad. Also, can we sing oooooos at the end of the song?

Arley- My family and I always lay outside and look at stars. I will teach them the song.
