

Laws and policies cannot stop prejudice from growing in a heart.

Dr. King recognized we can pass all the laws we want. We cannot legislate the heart!

Now more than ever we need to plant the Sun poem in the world!

Your funds can help us achieve this!

BACKGROUND

In 1985, the Sun Poem became the centerpiece of a multi-media public service campaign to promote racial and ethnic harmony in Boston. It was promoted on TV, radio, posters in mass transit and on billboards throughout the city. This success inspired a collaboration with organizations in New York City to launch one in 1986 and Providence, R.I. in 1988.

In 1987, the poem inspired the Sun Poem Workshop. It introduced the poem and used poetry, creative writing and oral expression to sensitize students to value differences in people. Through grants from foundations, hundreds of students in public and private schools throughout Massachusetts participated. It was such a success it led to the creation a workshop geared to the workplace..

The Sun poem was developed into an educational tool to promote awareness around issues of diversity. Its been planted in all 50 states in educational institutions such as Caltech, Johns Hopkins University, Texas A&M, Lehigh University, and many more. Its been displayed in public schools and housing authorities across New England. In 2015 it inspired a song and program Singing Equality across America and around the World winning the hearts of thousands of student and even reaching a school as far as Namibia.

In 2021 Sara had the honor to give a TED Talk. Now the world will know how the poem was born, the initiatives it has inspired and the impact it continues to make, locally, nationally and globally.

The Sun Poem inspired a vision we've been dedicated to since 1994— build the World Unity Landmark showcasing the poem expressing equality and diversity. We believe this landmark has the potential to help transform the world.

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sara Ting | TEDx, Jacksonville

Are you greater than the sun,
that shines on everyone;
Black, Brown, Yellow Red and White,
The sun does not discriminate ...

Dear Longtime supporters and new friends,

World Unity Inc.'s initiatives are unstoppable! Your generosity and support over the years empowered us to persevere even during the global pandemic! It could not stop us from carrying on with our transformative initiatives! We produced a special video, World Unity Inc.'s Unstoppable Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives.

Since the founding of the organization in 1994 our initiatives and mission has required, extraordinary patience and perseverance. We have come this far because of your support and many leaders and organizations over the years. In every crisis there is always an opportunity, 2021 was a very fruitful year for us!

We launched World Unity Inc.'s 5 Minute Leadership Dialogue. We invited leaders of diverse professions and cultural backgrounds to a virtual 5-minute interview. We hope their response to life questions we all face can enlighten, empower and inspire viewers. We've interviewed a mayor, executive at Walmart, Comcast, Merck, CEO and even a Pulitzer Prize winning journalist.

The Sun poem was promoted on 37 digital billboards donated across 27 states by 10 companies within 4 months. Tony Lockridge, president of Lockridge Advertising offered this comment, "Keep up your amazing mission. The world needs this."

I had the honor to give a TED Talk in 2021 and in 2022 we are promoting it as an educational resource tool to organizations across the country, especial schools, universities, and colleges who are educating the future workforce and leaders. Change must come from within the person. The Sun poem is the heart of the TED Talk, it can ignite change in the person. "Very inspiring talk," Sara!! Comment from Vince DiPofi president of SSOE. Now more than ever our initiatives are needed to transform minds and hearts. Your generosity empower us to make the world a better place for everyone, especially the children. They are depending on us!

Sincerely,
Sara Ting

Vocalist

Born in Statesville, NC, Russell grew up in the late Sixties and was constantly listening to that great era's Soul, Blues and Gospel music, as well as absorbing the soundtracks from the popular movie musicals. Russell can often be found wherever good music and vocals are strong, and his soulful presence is often requested at Jazz, Pop and R&B gigs everywhere.

Russell started singing in Church, but it was an addiction to karaoke that helped refine and focus his talent that led him to perform publicly. He began his performance career with Fran D'Agostino. He's also performed with Shiki-boo Boston, Jennifer Antkowiak, and Tony Soul.

His powerful voice has attracted other musicians to work with him. He's currently part of several groups including SoulLove (Contact: Michael Angelo, musicissoullove@gmail.com) and Atlantic Avenue (<https://www.facebook.com/AtlanticAveBand/>). He's also performed with jazz pianist and radio host Pamela Hines and is part of an acoustic duo with Joe Foster.
